I have created several icons of advertising: the voice of The Pillsbury Doughboy, Google Santa, The Oscar Mayer Singing Hot Dog, The Original Scrubbing Bubble, Many of the Raid Bugs. On camera, I was the silent spokesman for Cheer Detergent in 16 countries. I won a Golden Lion at Cannes for Best Demonstration Commercial and the campaign is rated in the top 50 commercials in the world. I've driven in over 1,000 races and won seven championships. I also played in over 500 Hockey games. I was nominated for Audio Book of the Year. My competition was Barack Obama and Nelson Mandela. I didn't win Audio Book of the year, but I did win the Best Spiritual Book of the Year and Most Inspirational Book of the Year. I narrate and/or produce many audio books.

I wrote a text book about the business of acting. It is titled How Actors Make Money and Create Careers. It is available on Amazon.com. It is a practical guide to the business of professional acting.
