

Rafe Williams Bio

Rafe's professionalism and reputation for being both a club and crowd favorite has already landed him feature spots for top headliners like Dave Attell, Kyle Kinane, Joey 'Coco' Diaz, and many more. He has headlined his own shows at Helium, Old Rock House, and various clubs throughout the Midwest. He has received the honor of being named The Funniest in STL by Riverfront Times Magazine in 2017, one of "2016's Rising Stars in Arts and Entertainment" by GO! Magazine and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and the distinction of winning Helium Comedy Club's first annual "Funniest Person in St. Louis" competition in 2016.

Rafe is a comedic virtuoso and immerses himself in his craft. He is a writer/cast member on STL Up Late, a late-night sketch comedy talk show on KMOV CBS television. He is a regular guest and contributor on the We Are Live drive-time show on CBS Sports Radio and also hosts his own podcast called "The Other Side of the Tracks" available on iTunes. In addition, Rafe is an accomplished improviser and is a performer, coach, and adjunct faculty at The Improv Shop theater where he is a member of the house team "Burnside" and "Dadvan" performing regularly at The Improv Shop, Detroit Improv Festival in 2016, Chicago Improv Festival, And Del Close Marathon 19 in NYC with Matt Besser and Tim Meadows.
